

History of Art and Design II

Name:

Dallas Museum of Art Scavenger Hunt: Locate the following items in the designated galleries. 5 points for completing the list; 10 points for completing it correctly.

Item and Location	Sketch	Notes (name of artist, movement, additional information)
Museum of Europe A work by Piet Mondrian
Museum of Europe An Impressionist work not created by Claude Monet
Museum of Europe A painting that reflects the interest of post-Impressionists in foreign locations such as Brittany or the South Sea islands
Museum of Europe A work by Alexander Calder Or a Cubist sculpture Or a sculpture created after 1912

Museum of Europe A work by Wassily Kandinsky or another Expressionist
Museum of Europe A representational (i.e. non-abstract) work by Piet Mondrian
Museum of Europe A Pre-raphaelite painting
Museum of Europe or Center for Creative Connections A Surrealist painting or sculpture (If the Center is not open, skip this one)

Museum of Europe A work that reflects the tenets of Neoclassicism
The Reves Collection A work by Vincent van Gogh
The Reves Collection A work by an Impressionist
Museum of the Americas An American landscape by an artist we have studied this quarter

Museum of the Americas A work by an American Impressionist
Museum of the Americas A portrait by an American Impressionist or an American Realist
Museum of the Americas A work by Henry Ossawa Tanner
Museum of the Americas An example of Gothic Revival furniture

Japan: a work like those that inspired painters in the nineteenth and early twentieth-century painters
A work by a contemporary artist that shows the influence of Cubism, Expressionism, or even ancient art. (note how this work reflects what you say it does)
A work that exemplifies what Impressionists or later artists did to influence modern art.
Note your favorite among the works you saw today—and why.		